CANDIDATE WAS AT CHURCH

Toward Evening Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Received a Large Number of Callers at Their Hotel—Plans for the New England Trip Are Unsettled.
Will Reach New York Tuesday.Chicago, Aug. 9.—William J. Bryan left Chicago for Pittsburgh by the Pennsylvania Railroad at 11:30 o'clock tonight.Mr. and Mrs. Bryan departed from the Clifton a few minutes after 11, after shaking hands with a large number of people gathered there to say good-by, and were driven to the Union station, accompanied by the members of the Chicago reception committee.They had secured tickets in the regular sleeper, and retired as soon as the train drew out of the station.Hon. Richard P. Bland, who will accompany Mr. Bryan to New York, left Chicago this afternoon, and will join the train at Alliance tomorrow.Today was really a day of rest for Mr.
Bryan—one of the few he has succeeded in passing since his nomination here, nearly a month ago. Mr. Bryan is a good sleeper, and despite the intense heat of last night he rested well and did not leave his bed until nearly 10 o'clock.After breakfast he and Mrs. Bryan took a carriage to the Clifton House, where they were stopping, and drove to the Englewood Presbyterian Church, a beautiful structure at Sixty-fourth and Yale avenues, where they attended divine service. They arrived at the house of worship because the temporary minister, Rev. John Clark Hill, of Austin, Ill., is to be pastor of their church at Lincoln, and they wanted to meet him. Mr. Hill recently received a call to the First Presbyterian Church at Lincoln and will go there in a few weeks.After the service they returned to the Clifton and had dinner. Then both took a nap until 5:30. At 6 o'clock Mrs. Bryan went to the main parlor of the hotel and received a large number of people who were waiting to see her husband.Mr. Bryan received in his room. Many of his local supporters called. One of his visitors was Gen. Warner O. Hall, president of the National Institute of the League, the father of the new silver party.His Plans for New York.
Mr. Bryan's plans for New York and for his New England trip are in a state of uncertainty. It is probable that while in New York he and Mrs. Bryan will be the guests of William F. St. John, treasurer of the Democratic national committee, who recently received his position as president of a national bank because of his free coinage views.It is not yet known whether Mr. St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will go to the Hotel Bartholdi. Mr. Bryan does not know whether he will go to the hotel, but he has a good schedule from Pittsburgh to New York.
He had decided to leave Pittsburgh Tuesday morning at 7:30, but he was informed today that the national committee wanted him to reach New York in the afternoon and not in the morning.To comply with this desire he will be obliged to leave Pittsburgh at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning.LIVELY NEBRASKA POLITICS.
Prospect of a Sharp Controversy Over Democratic Indorsement of Popu.Omaha, Neb., Aug. 9.—The Democratic State convention will be held in Omaha about September 10, and it is probable that it will be a very lively controversy over the question of indorsing the Popular ticket nominated at Hastings Wednesday.Chairman C. J. Smyth of the State Central committee headed the Democratic committee that attended the convention, and since then he has been in conference with other members of the State committee. He says that in his opinion one can force the action of the Democratic convention."I am sure that the Populists will have shown more wisdom," said Mr. Smyth this morning, "if they had indicated a more liberal disposition toward the Democrats. I will not say that the Populist State ticket will not be indorsed, but it is certain that there is a strong opposition to that action. Whether that sentiment will be the majority or minority of the State convention remains to be seen.
The Populist ticket is a strong opposition to the Democrats. I am sure that my sentiments are shared by the other members of the committee."

LEAVES ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Salt Lake Herald Wants to Get All

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 9.—The Salt Lake Herald, the leading morning newspaper of Utah, has abandoned the news service of the Chicago Associated Press, and is now running the full leased wire service of the Associated Press. The Herald and Pacific coast news report of the United Associated Press.In its issue this morning, regarding the change as a "new and important step in the way of improvement," the Herald says:
"That the dispatches sent out by the Chicago Associated Press have been untrustworthy in many particulars, and anything but impartial, especially in political matters," that the United Associated Press is the most independent, comprehensive, and efficient news gathering organization in the world," and "that in making a permanent alliance with it, the Herald, has secured the best of the earliest practical opportunity to cut loose from the Chicago Associated Press and to lend the weight of its influence to the movement for having a better news service for the people of the western States, as well as those of the Pacific coast."

Union Painter Exonerated.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 9.—The delegates to the convention of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America, yesterday completed their business. The charges against ex-President Walter of assaulting a brother painter in this city, were investigated, and Mr. Walter was exonerated.

Union Pacific Cases Dismissed.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 9.—Judge Dundy of the federal court yesterday dismissed the government cases against the Union Pacific Railroad for forfeiture of land grants.
This was done on an order from Attorney General Harlow.

Nominated a Silver Democrat.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 9.—The Democratic Congressional convention of the Second district met here yesterday and nominated ex-President W. L. Ledger-wood, silver man, for the district. The district is overwhelmingly Republican.

RACE WAR IN ARKANSAS.

Three Colored Workmen Dead and a ## Number Wounded.

Texarkana, Ark., Aug. 9.—The race war in Poincville has broken out in earnest and as a result of the first battle, three negroes are dead, eight wounded and many have been run out of the county by the whites.Several negroes have passed through this place who were forced to leave the county and they bring news of a pretty bad condition of affairs.The trouble is between white and black laborers employed on the grading works of the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf Railway, near Poincville, Ark. The white laborers are determined that the negroes shall not work on the road, and are being backed up by citizens of the county, who have armed themselves for the purpose of running the negroes out.Thursday night a lot of whites, composed of Italian, Swede and Hungarian laborers, together with a number of natives, made a raid on a camp occupied by negro laborers, and three of the latter were killed outright, several others wounded and a number fled.The names of the killed are not known.
Several of the leaders of the raid have been arrested.

QUIET WEEK AT CANTON

Maj. McKinley May Make One or Two Short Speeches.His Letter of Acceptance Will Not Be Finished for a Week or So Yet.Canton, Ohio, Aug. 9.—This week will be one of the quiet ones of the campaign in Canton. One or two delegations are expected and Major McKinley may make two or three short speeches, but he hopes to give a great deal of time in the next few days to his letter of acceptance.It is likely that it will be finished by the end of the third week in August, but he does not expect to publish it before the fourth week. Mr. Hobart will commence work on his letter very soon, and if the usual custom be followed he will send a copy of it to Major McKinley a week or so before it is given to the public.Major McKinley's letter will be his longest and most formal utterance during the campaign, and will enter upon a careful discussion of the two great issues, protection and sound money.These issues are almost equal in importance, in the opinion of Major McKinley, as indicated in his speeches. Scores of his friends, however, who come here from all parts of the country, seek to impress upon him that popular interest in the money question is declining and that by the middle of September the tariff will be the issue of paramount importance. However this may be, Major McKinley is fully prepared to discuss both issues, and in his letter of acceptance he will not overlook either of them.The Ohio campaign will be opened on Saturday next at Columbus. The event will be of more than ordinary importance. The meeting will be addressed by Senator John Sherman and Senator-elect J. B. Foraker.
Senator Sherman's speech on Saturday will be looked upon very generally as the first step in his campaign for re-election to the United States Senate.Senator Sherman says he is preparing his speech with great care, and it is his wish to have it the most effective exposition of the financial question he has ever made. The prominence of finance in the politics of the day leads Senator Sherman's friends to believe that what political economy is called the "logic of the situation" points to the election of Senator Sherman as his own successor.In a State which has so many ambitious and able men as Ohio there are sure to be several candidates for the Senate, and Mr. Sherman will no doubt find some opposition when the next legislature meets to choose his successor. The name of Mark Hanna is frequently mentioned in connection with the Senatorship, but wholly without the warrant of Mr. Hanna himself.The Columbus meeting will call forth Mr. Foraker's first political utterance since the week of the Republican convention at St. Louis, and there is always a vast deal of interest to both see and hear him. He has prepared his speech thoroughly, and with Senator Sherman's and Major McKinley's letter of acceptance, will show very clearly upon what lines the Republican campaign is to be conducted, and what arguments are to be urged upon the people.

REJECTED, HE SHOT HER.

Colored Man Became Enamored of a

Pittsburg White Woman.

Pittsburg, Aug. 9.—Mrs. Nellie Snowden, the reputed wife of Henry Snowden, was shot through the head today by William Campbell.The bullet passed directly through the brain and the doctors say she cannot possibly recover. Mrs. Snowden is a white woman, aged twenty-two. Her husband is colored and is about fifty years old. Campbell is a colored man, aged thirty.Campbell had been a frequent visitor at the Snowdens' house, on South Seventeenth street, and during the absence of Snowden he had been in the habit of visiting there.
He was being pursued by the police, and was being sought by the police for a crime which he had committed in the city of St. Louis.Robbers Paroled by Bloodhounds.
Waresville, Ga., Aug. 9.—Robbers made a big raid here last night. The safe of the Southern Express Company and the safes of two stores were blown open and robbed, besides much valuable merchandise taken out of the stores. The robbers fastened the doors to the rooms above the stores, where the clerks slept, and before they could be opened the robbers had escaped. They are being pursued now by bloodhounds. The robbers were evidently the work of a professional. The extent of the thefts cannot be accurately told.

Tennessee Election Returns.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 9.—As the complete returns from over the State arrive the vote of the Daily News telegraph the chances of the candidates for the chancery court of appeal are becoming markedly. A conservative estimate is that their majority will be not less than $5,000. This is a surprising result, in the light of the fact that the Democratic leaders claim now that ex-Gov.
Taylor will carry the State by not less than 50,000, and possibly 60,000.

Unarmed Christians Hatched.

London, Aug. 9.—The Athens correspondent of the Daily News telegraph that a body of Mussulmans yesterday hatched thirty unarmed Christians within the precincts of the monastery at An-gostolou, near Candia. One priest was killed. The correspondent adds that Col.
Arduhan, a Kurd, whose son in Macedonia, will suppress the whole race, governor of Candia.

SOME RELIEF PROMISED

Sky Clouded Up and the Weather Bureau Promises that a Thunder Shower May Help Mankind Somewhat—How the Sober-Minded Citizens Tried to Keep Cool.Where! And wherefore?
Old Sol is still scorching at the pace that kills.Since Thursday last, when the record for the year was broken at 98, there has been a succession of fiery performances, all of which have been above 96, and yesterday the terrific heat forced the quick-silver again up to 98.Today there is a promise that the temperature will not be so high as yesterday, but the heat will still be excessive. The sun will probably have his direct rays shut off by clouds, this condition to be accompanied by thunderstorms.Was yesterday, 98, which high degree was three degrees hotter than August 9, 1895, and unnumbered degrees hotter than was desired anywhere around this latitude. While last Thursday was quite hot and with a greater humidity, 77 to yesterday a 73, Sunday brought more personal discomfort, distress and death.One reason for this is that men, women, and children have been under a great strain for the past eight days. There hasn't been a cloud bigger than a man's hand in sight since yesterday a week ago, and moreover the nights bring no relief.

A HARD NIGHT.

On Saturday night at 12 o'clock the temperature was 96, which high degree was maintained until 4 o'clock yesterday morning. It dropped 3 degrees up to 6 a. m., rose to 83 at 8 a. m. and 90 at 10 a. m. There wasn't much sleep of a restful, reposeful kind under such stress and strain.A statistician might assume himself with estimating the number of gallons of lemonade or tons of ice that were used at this universal indoor party yesterday, and he also might assume himself with estimating the number of ladies' dresses that were hung on the rack behind the door yesterday in countless ladies' chambers, but that would not convey the idea without a snap shot of the interior.A strictly at home on one of these well-done days in August carries with it the idea of a party. People went to their rooms, and opened their doors, and people in their stockings feet, a fan in one hand, home-made lemonade in the other, and garbed in that long, white, lacefringed, top and bottom, robe de rigueur.The babies are arrayed ditto, but less so, and disport themselves on the floor behind rubber rings, which is much better than chunks of ice and perspiration. It can be assumed that the undress house parties accounted for the woful lack of men and women on the streets from sunday morning to yesterday.The men of the household also appeared to have been paralyzed by the hot wave, and were domestic for at least twelve hours.ALL OUT FOR A RIDE.
But there was a general outpouring about 7:30 o'clock and thence forward until midnight. The cable and the trolley and the ancient horse car, that had run on wheels for a century, were crowded with people, who were being driven to a live after a storm. A very large proportion of the excursionists was made up of little folk, and especially of the foot army, who must have had a hard time all day. The excursion was the only real relief of the day and was almost universal.The bikers also came out in full force, quite a number of the riders being in their shirt sleeves.Last night late the clouds began to roll up from the north, giving some show for the verification of the Weather Bureau prophecy of clouds and thunderstorms today. Early in the night there were flashes of sheet lightning to the north, probably the result of the thunderstorms in lower Pennsylvania.Maj. Dunwoody, forecaster at the Weather Bureau, was asked last night if a limit to the wave was in sight. He said no quite decidedly. The West is still red-hot, and at Phoenix, Ariz., the mercury reached 109, and at the temperature West were about the same—Oklahoma, 95; Dodge City, 98; Springfield, Mo., 100; Little Rock, 98; Charlotte, 98. East—Boston had 92; Albany, 92; Philadelphia, 96.

Drowned in Lake Champlain.

Whitehall, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Miss Marion Burton, age thirteen, yearling daughter of William A. Burton of Boston, was accidentally drowned in Lake Champlain near Westport, this afternoon. She was in a boat with her mother and brother, and was drowned by the waves.Miss Margaret Moulder, a nurse, who accompanied the young lady, and who went to her assistance, was also drowned.

Resented It With Rites.

Richmond, Ky., Aug. 9.—The Baker boys at Kirby Knob, Jackson county, thirty miles south of here, offered some indignity to Uncle Barty Reese on Wednesday. Reese met the Baker boys afterward and opened on them with rifles. The Bakers replied with revolvers. One of the Bakers and one of the Reese boys were fatally wounded.

In Hampton Roads.

Fort Monroe, Va., Aug. 9.—Admiral Busce, with the flagship New York, battleship Indiana, cruisers Newark, Columbia and Cincinnati, arrived in Hampton Roads at 4 p. m. today. The light-house tender Maple, the cutter Baker and the gunboat, arrived together.

Earl of Limerick Dead.

London, Aug. 9.—The Earl of Limerick died today.Three Dead and Six Prostrated By the Heat Here.

ONE OF THEM MAY DIE

Charles Walter, a Hunkler, Falls on the Street and Dies in a Few Minutes After Reaching the Hospital.
An Old Soldier's Ending in a Down-Town Hotel.Three persons died from the heat in this city yesterday and six more were prostrated and taken to hospitals. The dead were:CHARLES F. WALTER, hunkler, living at the Tremont House.
JAMES M'GONIGLE, a discharged soldier, stopping at the Elkhorn Hotel.
PATRICK R. O'CONNOR, No. 1813 Florida avenue, died at Providence Hospital yesterday from heat. The man was stricken down after attending at church.
He died in one hour after reaching the hospital.Those prostrated were:
CHARLES EXLEY, taken to the Emergency Hospital.
MISS MARY MORAN, taken to the Emergency Hospital.
OWEN BAXLER, of Baltimore, treated at Emergency Hospital.FRANK HIGGINS, colored, 125 C street north, treated at St. Joseph's Hospital.
WILLIAM BUTLER, colored, treated at Frederman's Hospital.
OSCAR B. BROWN, colored, treated at Frederman's Hospital.

DIED IN A FEW MINUTES.

Charles F. Walter fell at the corner of Third and C streets northwest, in front of the Hotel Crosby, at 5 o'clock. Bystanders and policemen laid the victim of the heat on the Indiana avenue parking the arrival of the patrol wagon, and the first precinct. He was rushed through to Emergency Hospital, but died within five minutes after reaching there, despite the heroic work of Surg. McGrath and the house staff, Surgs. Withers, West and O'Connor.
Everything known in hospital methods, in the matter of heat cases, was done for the relief of Walter.He came to Washington, ten years ago.
He had been a hunkler and had kept several stills. One year ago he and his wife, to whom he was married in 1867, were living at No. 59 Belmont street.
Three weeks ago he left his wife and their little daughter Nellie. He then took a room at the Baltimore House, No.
922 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, where he remained two weeks. He moved there because he was sick and wanted to be near his wife. He was taken to the hospital yesterday morning.When he was taken to the hospital, he was found to be suffering from heat stroke.
He was taken to the hospital at 5 o'clock.
He died in one hour after reaching the hospital.At Anderson, Ind., there was intense suffering among the men in the mill factory. There were three prostrations in the city.WORKS SUSPENDED Dispatches from ALTON, Ill., indicate the hottest weather on record. Outdoor work has been suspended at all these points. Vegetation is being burned by the heat and in many localities a water famine is threatened. The Washburn Railway officials have closed the shops of the entire system pending the heat storm.At Alton the mercury ranged from 105 to 112 in the shade.
Milan, Mo., reported yesterday 106 in the shade and much mortality among animals. Horses dropped in the streets and only absolutely necessary work was done.All roads were closed at Jefferson, Iowa, when the thermometer indicated 106 in the shade at 2 o'clock.At Tiffin, O., Henry Downey, an aged and wealthy farmer, was overcome by the heat yesterday and dropped dead while unloading his horses after a trip to the city.At Peoria, Ill., and Valparaiso, Ind., there were many prostrations. At Des Moines, Ia., a record of 92 degrees in the shade was reached and two fatalities resulted.At Milwaukee Rudolph Salomon, treasurer of the Ernst Salomon Commission Company, was struck by a bolt of lightning and instantly killed. The thunder shower in which Mr. Salomon lost his life came in the middle of one of the hottest days of the year.

TORNED IN CHICAGO.

In Chicago the heat, while not so intense today as yesterday, was almost unintermittent. There was a respite in the morning, but it was only temporary. A dull copperish sun exerted thousands to the parks and on excursions on Lake Michigan and to the resorts about the lake.About 9 o'clock a good breeze sprung up from the east, and the temperature fell rapidly.This condition obtained until 11 o'clock, when the minimum temperature of the day, 76, was reached.
The cooling zephyrs suddenly died out about this hour and the sun, unobscured by any clouds, soon increased the torridity until, at 4 o'clock, the thermometer registered 96. The fall from this time was about 1 degree per hour, and at 10 o'clock tonight the mercury was stationary at 90.But one fatality was reported today.
John Bults, a laborer, was found dead in his room of Fulton street. He is supposed to have succumbed to the intense heat of last night. The fact that today was Sunday was no doubt responsible for the small number of prostrations reported. The weather man promises no relief for at least twenty-four hours.Up to midnight the following sudden deaths were reported, which are supposed to have been caused by the excessive heat: Michael Hades, 136 Augusta street; James Gorman, 32 Martin street; Stephen Scherer, 35 West Lake street; unknown man, picked up on the street; Mary Joyce, 176 West Third street; Pat Hogan, 893 West Thirtieth street; Vincent Sladky, 249 West Twentieth street.St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 9.—Today's heat record is a repetition of that of yesterday, temperatures by a light breeze.
The thermometer ranged from 81 degrees at 8 a. m. to 100 at 5 p. m., and the death roll is not diminished. All day the city abounds have been carrying patients to the dispensary and corpses to the morgue.Many of those stricken several days ago have succumbed to the long continued strain of torrid days and sleepless nights. Deaths from this cause are now so common as to hardly excite remark. At 5 p. m. one ambulance hauled five patients to the dispensary and completed its journey by taking two corpses from the dispensary to the morgue. Since midnight last the following deaths are reported:Miss Pauline Tucker, 1027 North Leffel street; Frank Schuler, building apprentice, city dispensary; Thomas McGovern, laborer; Edward Walge, clerk; Catherine Banty; Henry Albers, shoe

MURDERER DEFIED THEM ALL.

Baltimore, Aug. 9.—Policemen were attracted to the house No. 11 North Amity street this afternoon by a woman's scream.
They found Richard M. Lyons standing over the prostrate form of his stepdaughter, Miss Jennie Shipley, aged twenty-two years, threatening to kill any one who came within his reach. Timman brandished a sledgehammer with which he had crushed the woman's skull. The murderer was disarmed and locked up. He refused to make any statement.

TOWN WIPED OUT BY FIRE.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 9.—Jordan, Ky., a town near the southwestern Tennessee line, was wiped out by fire early this morning.
Not a business house is left standing. The loss is total. The cause of the fire and the amount of insurance are unknown.dealer; Jose Bly, baker; Rudolph Post-tetter, baker; Charles Steelman, cooper; Margaret Albright; Edward Wench, inner; Barbara Matcous; Frank Miller, etc.Up to 9 p. m., over forty cases of prostration had been reported, the majority of them serious.Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 9.—The last four days have been the warmest ever known in Western Michigan, and rain is badly needed. The thermometer here was above 100 degrees all day, and toward evening only 100 points. Several fatalities have been reported, and more are expected. A cool wave strikes this portion of the State soon.Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 9.—Today was a record breaker, the mercury ranging from 80 to 93 during the day at the weather bureau. The temperature at other places was above 100. There were several prostrations, including twelve at the Ohio National Guard encampment, and William Fitzgerald, a laborer, who died from the effects of the heat.

THREE ITALIANS LYNCHED

Louisiana Mob Dragged Murderers From Jail and Strung Them Up.They Were Given Two Minutes in Which to Pray—Bodies Were Riddled With Bullets.New Orleans, La., Aug. 9.—Wednesday night last, in St. Charles Parish, Louisiana, a storekeeper, was assaulted while standing on his front porch.A Sicilian named Lorenzo Saladino was known to have a grudge against Gueynard, and he was suspected of the crime. Circumstantial and other evidence caused his arrest on Friday. The sheriff had great difficulty in preventing the people from lynching Saladino then and there.The sheriff secretly conveyed the prisoner to Hahnville, the county seat, and placed him in jail.This structure is a new brick building, and was guarded by a negro night watchman, who has performed the duty several years. Two other Italians, named Decino and Angelo Marcus, were confined in the jail for the murder of an aged Spaniard on one of the plantations.A mob tonight last night a mob of about fifty persons, well armed, surprised the guard, battered down the doors of the jail and took out the three Italians. The prisoners cried and begged for mercy, but the crowd took them to a stable a few distance away, gave them two minutes in which to pray and then strung all three of them up by their necks to the rafters.The crowd stood around a few minutes until the bodies ceased to struggle and then opened fire from their Winchester rifles on the dangling forms, literally riddling them with bullets. The lynchers then quickly dispersed.The news of the lynching spread like wild fire, and by daylight a great crowd had gathered where the three lynched men were still hanging, dripping with the blood from their numerous bullet wounds and presenting a ghastly sight.
It is said the lynching party came from St.
Gabriel, the former home of Gueynard, but none of the men were recognized.

KANSAS REPUBLICANS MEET.

Unusually Large Convention Expected

Topeka, Kas., Aug. 9.—The Republican State convention will meet in this city Tuesday. The delegates and candidates begin to arrive today, and the convention is expected to be unusually large.It is generally conceded that Gov. E. N.
Morrill will be re-nominated on the first ballot, notwithstanding the claims of the three opposing candidates, Troutman, Potter and Peters.Interest centers in the contest for chief justice, a strong opposition to the re-nomination of David Martin having developed during the past few days. Martin is a consequence of free coinage, which is the reason that his nomination is being contested. His opponents are Nelson O.
Chase, of Oswego; T. F. Weaver, of Salina, and C. H. Cravens, of Emporia.Martin is making no canvass, but his friends insist that he is entitled to another term and that the voters should be asked to ratify the silver element in the party.
